

TELEGRAMS, "AQUILÆ, LONDON"
TELEPHONE NOS RECENT 4024 & 4025.

As

ROYAL SOCIETIES CLUB,
ST. JAMES'S STREET,
S.W.1.

29 Shakespeare Road
Bordpint. 17. xii. 21

Dear Mr Russell,

Thank you for your very kind letter. My verbalist philosophy was evidently one of those experiences one does not forget! I had heard of your many adventures, but not of your son. Please tell him I admire his taste in fathers & that I hope he will continue as well as he has begun.

It is very kind of you to ask me to call: as I am here over Christmas I have attempted to write a kind of apology. I am not sure there is any connection between my philosophy & the economic divide. But you will probably understand what I mean when I say that in pessimistic moments I feel that philosophy is all bosh & that I ought to be doing honest work. But since I saw you I have received some encouragement: and I suppose it is not entirely due to mere politeness.

I believe a piece of practical work would reach me a lot: The fact that it was officially recognised would give me confidence and also enable me more easily to get access to the sources of information. And last but not least, the grant of a loan would give me courage to spend some money which in my present condition I do not feel justified in doing for what may be mere moonshine - If Schiller likes my work, and if you think I may do useful work, I am sure Weldon Carr would put in a word for me, & with an official blessing I might set to work under more reasonable conditions than at present without feeling that I was acting unfairly to my family.

With many thanks yours sincerely
W. O. Dwyer.